PROGRAM

Welcome: Dr. Fred Glennon, director of the Le Moyne College Faculty Excellence Center and a member of the Religious Studies Department

Moderator: Dr. Mary MacDonald is a professor of Religion at Le Moyne College and part of the organizing committee for Onondaga Land Rights & Our Common Future II.

Presenters for From the “Doctrine of Discovery” to International Recognition of Rights

Philip P. Arnold is an Associate Professor of Indigenous Religions, Department of Religion, Syracuse University. For 20 years Phil has collaborated with the Haudenosaunee, particularly with the Onondaga Nation leadership on issues and events that promote Indigenous values. He is active with Neighbors of the Onondaga Nation and a key organizer of this series. Since 2005 he has coordinated Roots of Peacemaking celebrations at Onondaga Lake and recently founded the Indigenous Values Initiative.

John Dieffenbacher-Krall has devoted much of his adult life to activism, community organizing and social change. He is the Executive Director for the intergovernmental Maine Indian Tribal-State Commission which monitors the agreement that was reached between three Wabanaki Tribes and the State of Maine as well as the social, economic and legal relationship between the parties. John initiated and has been a key organizer in the successful effort to convince the Episcopal Church to renounce the Christian Doctrine of Discovery.

Tonya Gonella Frichner (Snipe Clan, Onondaga Nation) is President and founder of the American Indian Law Alliance in New York City. A lawyer and an activist, Tanya’s academic and professional life have been dedicated to the pursuit of human rights for Indigenous Peoples locally, regionally and globally. She is the North American Regional Representative to the United Nations Permanent Forum on Indigenous Issues and played a key role in the passage of the UN Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples.

After the panel presentation, refreshments will be served in the lobby and information and materials for purchase will be available from Neighbors of the Onondaga Nation

Discussion groups will begin 15 minutes after the main presentation in the following rooms: Grewen 203, 206, 207 and 219 (all one floor below the auditorium). If additional space is needed, discussions will also be held in Grewen Auditorium.
