Tuesday, Aug 28 from 4:15pm - 5:00pm

(14th and 28th) Northern Lights Mattydale, (7th and 21st) Hancock Airbase

It is critical to be on the streets – not only to continue to assert our rights to be there, but also to stand publicly for what we believe. Demonstrations and rallies are a key part of this. What Street Heat offers is a little different – it is a regular public presence at locations selected for their high visibility (six times a month), including Hancock Airbase (home of the 174th Attack Wing of reaper drones) twice a month. Please give it a try! Go a few times this summer and see what you think – if you're going to the Regional Market anyhow on a Saturday, stop by Street Heat first. Make a sign of your own or use one of ours. Contact Ann or Ed, 315-478-4571.
