

Exploring the Intimate Link Between WAR AND RACISM

Aly Wane, organizer with Black Immigration Network and Syracuse Peace Council

Rebecca Fuentes, community activist and Lead Organizer with the Workers Center of CNY

Herve Comeau, community activist and attorney with the Volunteer Lawyers Project

THURSDAY January 18, 2018 7-9 PM

ArtRage Gallery 505 Hawley Ave, Syracuse

peacecouncil.net • cnysolidarity.org

System-wide violence in US communities is the twin of US aggressive wars abroad. MLK taught that the antiracist and the antiwar movements must go arm in arm. Three eloquent speakers—each on the frontlines of local movements for racial, immigrant and worker justice—will share their perspectives and reveal the relevance of MLK's insight today.

Sponsored by the Beyond War and Militarism Committee a joint project of the CNY Solidarity Coalition and the Syracuse Peace Council